EXPERIENCE

INTERNSHP

BCI New Media, Frontend Developer

During my internship at BCI New Media, I had the opportunity to work extensively as a Frontend Developer. My role involved developing and maintaining the user interface of web applications using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I also gained hands-on experience with Bootstrap and various other libraries to enhance the functionality and responsiveness of the sites. This experience has greatly improved my skills in frontend development and deepened my understanding of web design principles.
